Investments in Industry and Energy to be focused at iPAD meeting

Luanda – The Angolan minister of Energy, Emanuela Vieira Lopes, and the state secretary of industry, Kiala Gabriel, will highlight the investments and partnership in the industry and energy sectors in Angola in the country during the meeting of the Infra-structures Partnership for Africa Development (iPAD) scheduled for May in Luanda.

A press release issued here saturday states that a team of government officials and experts will address potential investors at the event aimed at facilitating contacts for business opportunities.

Subjects such as "Opportunities for investment and partnership for the development of Angola's industrial sector", "Development of regional cooperation and contribution for Angola's growth" will be high on the agenda of the meeting.
